(Sneetal to The Times-Dispatch.)
LAWRENCEVILLE, VA., February 20, Judge L. D. Yarrell and former Congressman Francis R. Lassiter attended Circuit Court here to-day, seeking the nomination for a seat in the next Congress. Both circulated, shaking the hands of old friends and making new ones.

Judge J. F. West, who presided over the Circuit Court, ordered a special grand jury summoned for to-morrow to investigate the case against the two negroes who are now held in jail for the murder and robbery of the old man, Sterling Lumbert, during December. This old man lived by himself and was found dead with his head in a spring. He had been choked to death and put in the spring to avoid suspicion.
